Prayer Diary

Monday 25th April: Today PCI are launching their new email resource “Tides”, which will send daily devotions straight to your inbox. It aims to help you go deeper and to discover afresh what regular engagement with God can provide for your lives. You will receive a reminder each morning with guidance, a bible reading and prayer topics. Today prayerfully reflect on this new initiative and check it out for yourselves at <https://www.presbyterianireland.org/tides>

Tuesday 26th April: Pray for our church visitor Jim Lyttle as he travels around the elderly and sick in our church community. Ask God to help him as he discusses their health and tries to provide comfort to them while sharing the word of God.

Wednesday 27th April: As exam season is nearly upon us, pray for all the young people in our congregation who are busy finishing off pieces of coursework and starting to study. Ask that God would calm their nerves, give them concentration and enable them to stick to their revision timetables.

Thursday 28th April: Pray for the work of Parent and Toddlers as they meet together this morning. That the parents will enjoy the fellowship of chatting together while their children are having fun in a safe environment. Pray for the faithful band of leaders as they get alongside the adults and for the volunteers who make refreshments.

Friday 29th April: Pray for all the people meeting together in the church tonight; mosaic team, street pastors, youth, children, parents and those meeting for discipleship explored. Praise God that we have a place to meet together.

Saturday 30th April: Pray for the May Day church family fun day taking place in the new V36 Valley Park this coming Monday. Pray for the preparations for the “friendly” football match with Ballyhenry Presbyterian Church, and that everyone will enjoy a good day.

Sunday 1st May: As we meet together this morning, praise God for the many people who are actively involved in our morning and evening worship. From those in leading roles to those who sit in the congregation, all are an important part of Church family. “Just as a body, though one, has many parts, but all its many parts form one body, so it is with Christ” 1 Corinthians 12 v12

OFFICE HOURS: Thursdays 12.30—3.30pm and Sundays 10—11am.

OPEN DOOR: will resume on Thursday 7th April 11.30am—12.30pm

PRAYER BOX: Please leave any prayer requests in the box in vestibule.

RECORDINGS OF SUNDAY SERVICES are available from recording desk in balcony.
