Prayer Diary

When you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your father, who is unseen. Then your father who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Matthew 6 v 6

Monday, 11th February: Give thanks for all God's goodness to us, for the freedom to worship yesterday and for the comfort and challenge of God's word. Pray for those who share the word with others through preaching or witnessing in practical ways.

Tuesday, 12th February: Remember Louise Hacking as she has completed her work with CUI. Pray for wisdom and guidance for Louise as she embarks on a new chapter in her life. Ask that she will see God's will clearly and know His presence each day.

Wednesday, 13th February: Ask God to bless the moderator of PCI as he undertakes many duties each week. May he know God's guidance in every task he faces. Pray for the moderator elect, Rev. William Henry, as he prepares to lead our church next year. May God grant him wisdom in all his decisions.

Thursday, 14th February: Pray for the Prime Minister, Theresa May, as she negotiates with the EU on behalf of the country. Ask for wisdom and patience for her in all the deliberations about Brexit and ask God to guide our nation in His way.

Friday, 15th February: Remember the David Gordon Memorial Hospital in Malawi where Lynn Dowds serves as doctor. Give thanks that after a period of prayer and fasting the hospital received a substantial donation to enable it to continue to function. Pray for Lynn and her husband Johnny who work under difficult circumstances to share God's love with those they meet.

Saturday, 16th February: Continue to pray for Gloria and Sebastian in their work in Slovenia. Give thanks for their faithfulness in the work of God's kingdom and ask God to bless them with good health and wisdom. Pray for God's clear guidance in the preaching and counselling tasks they undertake. Pray too for their three little sons as they grow up.

Sunday, 17th February: Thank God for the freedom we have today to worship Him. Ask for His blessing on each one who comes to church that they may hear a clear word from the Lord. Pray too for the members who are too frail to join in public worship that they will remember that God is with them wherever they are.
