Prayer Diary

Sunday 22 January

'Direct my footsteps according to your word; let no sin rule over me.' Psalm 119: 133. As we worship today ask God to direct our daily living and set us free from sins that overshadow our lives.

Monday 23 January

Pray for Steve and Rosie Kennedy (global mission workers, Romania) in their ongoing commitment to learn the Hungarian language and give thanks for their steady progress.

Tuesday 24 January

Pray for the grieving families of the 72 people, including three members of Nadipur Church, who died in the recent plane crash in Pokhara, Nepal. Pray also for improved passenger and airline safety in Nepal.

Wednesday 25 January

Pray for the Reformed Church in Transcarpathia (Ukraine) as it prepares to hold its General Assembly in Beregszasz (Berehove) on 28 January 2023 and as it inaugurates newly elected officers.

Thursday 26 January

Give thanks for those who voluntarily serve on school boards of governors and management across the island of Ireland. Pray for great wisdom and discernment for those who have particular responsibility to uphold Christian ethos in schools and for all governors as they seek to support principals and staff in making the best decisions for pupils.

Friday 27 January

Mental health cases have risen significantly throughout the pandemic and now due to financial strain of the cost of living crisis. Pray that there will be adequate funding for our Health Trusts to provide services in the community. Pray that God will be close to those suffering from depression and other mental health problems.

Saturday 28 January

Licentiates, or assistant ministers, are placed in congregations to continue their training 'on the job'. An important part of this is supervision by the minister of the congregation. Pray for these ministers, and the other elders in the congregations.
